

NEW THEORY IN WERTS MURDER

McKean Township Man Says He Can Put His Hands Upon Person Who Killed Mrs. Werts, But Is Afraid To Do So—He Believes Eva Is Hiding the Facts—Girl Is Now Guest of Sheriff Redman.

"I could lay my hands upon the man who beat old Mrs. Werts' brains out last Thursday, if I wanted to," was the startling statement made in this city Tuesday noon by a well-known resident of McKean township. The man who thus spoke was neither intoxicated nor insane.

Continuing his statement this man whose name is withheld for obvious reasons, went on to explain his theory, first dropping the remark that the reason he did not "place his hands upon the murderer" was because he wanted to continue his residence in this section of the country. In other words, he fears the consequences of such action.

"Eva Werts' age has been given as 14," continued this man. "She is nearer 17. But that doesn't matter. She has had 'beaux' and my theory is that one of them, objectionable to the old lady (Mrs. Werts) called last Thursday night, that Mrs. Werts and this fellow had a controversy, a struggle, and then the murder. My theory is that Eva Werts saw the murder and after it was over the story was fixed up.

"Eva Werts didn't jump out of that second story window. Mark my words and see how near this story turns out to the real facts. The murderer of Mrs. Werts will be captured."

The theory above given can only be proved or disproved by the official investigation and the passage of time. The entire county is awaiting the result of the work of the officers with unabated interest, and many are impatient that an arrest has not already been made.

It is known that the county officers believe that the murderer is still within the county and that for this reason, no effort is being made to send the notices of reward outside of the boundaries of the county.

A prominent official has said that the suspicion rests on three men, but that sufficient evidence can not be gathered against any one to warrant an arrest.

EVA WERTS GUEST OF SHERIFF REDMAN

Little Girl Who Saw Her Grandmother Killed, Now at County Jail—She Is Not Locked Up.

Eva Werts, the 14-year-old granddaughter of the victim of last Thursday's murder in McKean township, is now the guest of Sheriff Smith L. Redman at the county jail. The little girl is not a prisoner, but the officers deem it advisable to keep the child away from outside influences inasmuch as she is the sole witness to the foul crime that was committed on the morning of June 1. Then, too, the opinion prevails that under proper conditions the little girl may reveal certain facts which it is thought she possesses.

As stated in Monday's paper, Chief of Police J. S. Sheridan and Coroner C. F. Legge were taken to Alexandria in one of James Mills' autos, and, having located the child at the home of Jacob Sutton, two miles from McKean, they brought her to Newark late Monday afternoon.

Since the tragedy the little girl has been subjected to all kinds of annoyance from the curious and in order to avoid these people she had gone to the Sutton home to remain until the matter had quieted down. Her father, however, desired her to be brought to Newark and taken care of as he did not wish her to be influenced by anyone. The girl was taken to the county jail, where she will be employed until the matter is thoroughly investigated.

FRANCES L. WERTS WAS NEARLY 65

Murdered Woman Was Married In 1869 To James Werts—Mother of Three Children.

Frances L. BeByard was born Dec. 20, 1840, and was found murdered in her home in McKean township June 1, 1905.

She was married to James Werts March 16, 1869. Three children were born to them, two sons and one daughter. The husband, one son and the daughter survive. Her funeral was held at her late home last Saturday afternoon in charge of the Rev. Forbes B. Davis, pastor of the Methodist church at Chatham, and was very largely attended by people from all parts of the county.

Cleveland, O., June 6.—Three men met a terrible death in an accident at the Emma furnace of the American Steel and Wire company at 10 o'clock this morning. The dead: James Donahue, pipe fitter; William McBride, master mechanic; An unknown Pole.

EVA WERTS IS NOT SUSPECTED

Prosecutor Fitzgibbon, Coroner Legge and Chief Sheridan Are Hard at Work on Case.

The official investigation of the Werts murder continues each day and as far as the public is concerned, the mystery is no nearer solved today than it was Saturday. As far as can be learned no new developments have resulted from the efforts of the officers. The investigation is being conducted by Prosecutor Fitzgibbon and Coroner Legge with the assistance of Chief Sheridan.

Eva Werts, the star witness in the case, who took a mysterious trip to the home of relatives near Alexandria, was brought to the city Monday afternoon and is a guest at the home of Sheriff Redman at the county jail.

Many persons gathered that inasmuch as the girl was being held by the police that she was suspected of either being an accomplice in the crime or of having done the deed herself. The officers state that she is merely being held that they might keep close tab on her actions and here whereabouts.

GINSENG HUNTERS WERE DETAINED

Thought They Might Have Something To Do With Frances Werts Murder.

Mt. Vernon, June 6.—An old man and his son, who were strangers in the community, were detained in Martinsburg Saturday evening until they proved that they resided near the Hill church and were out hunting ginseng. It was thought that they might have had something to do with the Werts murder near Dry Creek, Licking county, and this caused their detention.

PROHIBITED THE MEETING

Russian Officials Interfere With the Zemstvo Congress.

CALLED TO DISCUSS PEACE

Labor Leaders of the Empire Negotiating for the Purpose of Calling a General Strike—Autocracy's Determination to Continue the War Reported Fixed and Definite.

St. Petersburg, June 6.—The meeting of the all-Russian zemstvo congress, for which 280 delegates from various zemstvos and municipalities, including the mayors of 25 cities, are here, and at which it was proposed to introduce resolutions calling for the immediate cessation of hostilities, has been prohibited. The order of prohibition has aroused the greatest indignation and resentment.

A peace meeting at Moscow also was suppressed.

Labor leaders are negotiating for the purpose of declaring a general strike next Saturday.

The foreign office and admiralty say the decision whether to disarm the three Russian cruisers at Manila or effect repairs there and endeavor to reach a Russian port was left in Admiral Enquist's hands, to determine according to his best judgment. Little doubt was felt that the cruisers would be interned until the end of the war, as before the repairs which Enquist cables are imperative could be effected a Japanese squadron would be off Corregidor island waiting to capture or sink them. The admiralty has given out a cable statement of the dead and wounded on board the three cruisers at Manila, but asserts that no report from Rear Admiral Nebogatoff has yet been received.

The conference between President Roosevelt and Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, regarding peace, has not borne fruit here. Foreign Minister Lamoriniere has not yet visited Tsarskoe-Selo, but will yet Count Cassini's dispatch before the emperor on regular audience day. Count Cassini's report places the whole conversation in a purely informal light, and it is expected that Russia's answer will be returned in an equally informal manner. The officials did not hesitate to express the opinion that the determination to continue the war was fixed and definite. They seemed pleased with President Roosevelt's friendly spirit, which was manifested in such a form as not to require a formal reply.

WHITE HOUSE

Is the Scene of Another Conference—Envoys Call Upon President Roosevelt.

Washington, June 6.—Peace in the far east was the subject of another conference at the White House between the president and Mr. Takahira, the Japanese minister. It was the third conference of the day which the president had had on this subject. Mr. Jusserand, the French ambassador, and Mr. Obrien, the British charge d'affaires, having been callers at the White House. Thus far the Japanese minister has not been able to tell the president what Japan is likely to demand of Russia when the latter can be brought to discuss peace. The president was unable to give Mr. Takahira any intimation of how Russia has viewed the annihilation of her fleet, and until Count Cassini's report of his visit to the White House has been replied to from St. Petersburg, no further progress toward peace can be made in that direction.

The president, it is believed, will endeavor to keep Japan's peace terms within reasonable bounds.

SHEA PLACED UNDER ARREST

Teamsters' Strike Leader Held on a Charge of Conspiracy.

HAS A TILT WITH SHERIFF

Goes to Jail in Consequence, but His Attorney Soon Effects His Release. President of Truck Drivers' Union Also Placed Under Bond on Similar Allegation—Situation at Chicago.

Chicago, June 6.—Cornelius P. Shea, President of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, and leader in the strike which has existed in Chicago for the last two months, was arrested and taken to jail for a time. With him on the long journey to the office of the sheriff, and then to the jail, was Hugh McGee, president of the Truck Drivers' union. Both men were taken into custody on capias issued on indictments charging them with conspiracy, which were voted by the grand jury that adjourned last Saturday night. It was the understanding at the office of Sheriff Barrett that President Shea, who was aware of the indictment returned against him, would appear at his office during the day and give bonds. He failed to do so, and Deputy Sheriffs Robert Wilson and Martin Honan were sent after him.

"Hello, Shea," the sheriff said when the party reached the sheriff's office. "I am the president of the national organization of teamsters," said Shea, with anger in his tones, "why are you not on the square? We never treated a fellow like this in Boston."

"What do you mean by not 'being on the square'?" asked the sheriff. "I mean that you have had these capias since Saturday and that they have not been served upon us until now," said Shea.

"I was assured by your attorneys," said Sheriff Barrett, "that you and the rest of the indicted leaders would be brought into this office today and given up. That is why you were not served. You did not come, and we went after you."

President Shea lost his temper completely at this point and denounced the sheriff and all his works in emphatic language. He was told by the sheriff that he would be given all necessary time to procure bondsmen, but that he would be taken to jail at once unless he moderated his manner of talking.

"I would not mind going to jail," said President Shea, "if it was not for Levy Mayer. He has directed your action in this matter."

"I want you to understand that not another word must come from you regarding Levy Mayer," retorted the sheriff. "I am sheriff, and I am conducting this office."

The sheriff then ordered his deputies to take the labor leaders to jail, which was done. After being prisoners for a little more than two hours both Shea and McGee were released, their attorneys having procured bonds which were approved by Judge Tuttle.

CHICAGO FEDERAL GRAND JURY

Will Convene Tomorrow After Month's Recess—Several Indictments Expected Within Few Days—Strong Evidence Against Men High In Employment of Big Packers.

Chicago, June 6.—The special federal grand jury investigating the beef industry will resume work tomorrow, after a recess of nearly a month. Several indictments are expected to be made public within a few days. While few more witnesses may be examined it is said at United States district attorney's office that practically the only task devolving is to vote such indictments as they deem wise and then adjourn. Another story has it that indictments were voted before the jury adjourned and were so important, reaching so high that the district attorney went to Washington to lay them before President Roosevelt and Attorney General Moody. There is said to be strong enough evidence to warrant the indictment of certain men high in the employment of the big packing firms.

BLOODHOUNDS

Should be Purchased by County for Use in Criminal Cases—Petition Signed a Few Years Ago.

(Communicated)

A few years ago a petition was circulated in this city and township, the object of which was to ask the commissioners to procure for the use of the sheriff two well-trained bloodhounds. Some two hundred names of our best citizens were procured and, with the exception of one or two, every one heartily approved the proposition.

For some reason, neither the commissioners nor the sheriff were in sympathy with the movement at the time. The wish of the people was ignored and the petition was shelved indefinitely.

Since that time there have been at least three instances in this county and several cases in adjoining counties where dogs would have been of valuable assistance in running down criminals. At the time the petition was circulated, it was claimed that the county had no barn, and it was stated that if a stable were furnished the sheriff would buy the required dogs at his own expense.

The barn has been built at quite an outlay so that the sheriff has horse and buggy and all that is needed for his comfort and convenience. The dogs, however, are as far off as ever.

A few claim that it would be an additional expense, which should be avoided. Why do we expend thousands of dollars yearly for deputy sheriff and our whole police force if not for the protection of the people of this city and county? If a few hundred dollars expended for the purchase of a few bloodhounds will aid the officers of the city and county in protecting its people from the stealthy assault of a premeditated murderer or help to bring the murderer to justice, it certainly seems money well spent.

The number of crimes committed within the vicinity of Newark within the past few years where dogs might have given a clue to the perpetrators are surely an argument which can not easily be overcome. The fact is very often overlooked that the presence of bloodhounds in the county will often prevent depredations by the cowardly prowler who fears detection by their aid.

We think we voice the sentiment of nearly every taxpayer of the county in our demand that the commissioners buy at once these animals of approved breed and training. TAXPAYER.

There was a dull aching in the loins and my back was very weak. Besides this I had trouble with the kidney sections, which were irregular and disturbed my sleep at night. I was usually just as tired in the morning as when I went to bed. Nothing I could get seemed to help any until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills procured at Crayton's drug store. I had heard a great deal about the wonderful action of this remedy on the kidneys and bladder, but I was greatly surprised by the quick effect in my case. I improved rapidly under the treatment until the pain in the back ceased and the action of the kidneys became natural. A few boxes made a complete cure."

WIFE KNOWS HIS DANGER

(Copyright, 1905, by R. M. McClure.)

At 2 o'clock in the afternoon Mr. Bowser telephoned over to the house that he wanted dinner sharp on the mark and that his dress suit should be all ready for wear that evening. And when he reached home three hours later Mrs. Bowser thought she observed a sort of military swing to his short legs as he came through the gate.

"Are we to go to the theater to-night?" she asked before he had scarcely got the front door unlocked.

"Humph! Who said anything about the theater?" he replied.

"But I thought you had got tickets and that we were to go in evening dress, and I've spent two hours changing the lace in my dress."

"I've got something more important than dawdling around a theater. I am invited to a banquet of the H. O. G., and I wouldn't miss it for a million dollars."

"You are going to a hog banquet?" "Hog be banged! H. O. G. stands for the Heroic Old Guard. It is composed of generals, colonels, majors and captains, and there is not one of them who has not been wounded at least twice. It is the most select affair of the season, and I am greatly honored."

"But how does it come that you are invited?" inquired Mrs. Bowser.

"How? How does anything come? I was invited because they wished to do me honor."

"But you were not in the war. You were not old enough to go. Your father was even opposed to it. If you have gone and passed yourself as a veteran—"

"Stop right there!" commanded Mr. Bowser as his face got hot. "I am not in the habit of passing myself off as what I am not, and I would thank you to remember it."

"But one time when you had two boils on your leg and was limping around on crutches you limped over to the grocery and there met a man who asked you what regiment you used to belong to and called you general. You didn't explain things to him, and he afterward found out that it was boils and said you ought to be jailed. I hope you haven't deceived any one in this case."

Mr. Bowser was so mad that he stood and gasped for breath for a moment, and when he could speak his voice sounded squeaky and far away.

"By the pirate's beard, woman!" he finally managed to say. "I sometimes wonder what prevents me from immolating you on the spot! Say no more on this subject—not a word. I shall attend the banquet. I shall return from the banquet. When I return we will have a little talk and settle our matters. It would expedite things if you spent the evening packing your trunks. You could also telegraph your mother that as I am about to make some repairs to the house you are coming home for awhile."

Mrs. Bowser pursued the matter no further. When dinner was over she assisted him with his collar, tie and cuffs and chatted so brightly of other things that Mr. Bowser almost forgot that he had ever had two boils on one leg at once and had used the crutch of a hero. When ready to depart he said:

"This will not be a late banquet. They always break up early. You needn't sit up for me, however. Some of the generals may want to talk with me after it's over."

"But you'll be careful?" "Of what?"

"Tell them that you are ready to die for your country, but don't let on that you never have. Keep clear of battles and army matters or you'll get all mixed up."

"Perhaps you'd better hire a small boy to go along with me."

"You know what I mean. You have never read much about the war, and if you begin talking about it you'll get Bull Run mixed up with Appomattox. You look like a real general as you stand there now, with your hat cocked on one side and your left leg drawn back, but of course you are not."

Mr. Bowser had got ready to say something mean in reply, but he was flattered by her words, and, giving her a supposed military salute and a bow, he took his departure.

Mrs. Bowser did not go to bed. A still, small voice told her that when her patriot came home he would have need of her services. It was hard on to midnight when she heard something stumbling up the front steps, falling down and take a minute to get up again. She went to the door, and there stood Mr. Bowser. He wasn't standing exactly, but, rather, leaning, and the wedges in his knees seemed to have come loose. She reached out and hauled him in, helped him off with his spring overcoat and hat and then conducted him along to the sitting room and sat him down in a chair. Then he awoke and looked around and asked:

"Where am I and who are you?" "You are in your own house, Mr. Bowser, though how you knew it will always be a puzzle to me, and I am Mrs. Bowser. Did you have a good time at the hog banquet?"

"Shay, now, I am Bowsher, ain't I?" "Yes."

"Sheneral Bowsher?" "Well, say, General Bowsher."

"Then 'er want to tell you that I had the best time in all my life. Nicest banquet I ever saw. Nicest fellows I ever met. More'n forty fellows shook hands with me and called me Sheneral Bowsher."

"But you didn't claim to be a general, did you?"

"Yesh, I did, Mrs. Bowsher—yesh I did. I wasn't goin' to tell no lies to please you nor anybody else. Yesh, shir. I told 'em I was 'er great and noble Sheneral Bowsher, who led his division into 'er jaws of death at Syracuse, and you ought to have heard the cheering."

"But there was no battle of Syracuse."

"You are awfully nice woman, Mrs. Bowsher—awfully nice and good woman—but don't dispute your husband. Your husband knows all about 'er war. There was battle of Syracuse, and I lost 2,000 heroes there. They asked me to tell 'er story."

"And you stood up and told it?" "Of course. When 'er feller patriots want hear my story I must tell it, mustn't I? Course I told my story. I stood up like zhis—and waved my arm like zhis—and—"

Mr. Bowser came within an ace of falling backwards, but Mrs. Bowser grabbed him in time, and as he got seated again he exclaimed:

"Heroes and patriots. Our commander asks us to die for our beloved country. Zhere is 'er enemy in front of us. Here we be. Shall it ever be said that Britons—shall it ever be said that—that shall it ever— Mrs. Bowsher, pass along that champagne and lobster salad."

"But there is none here, dear. You are not at the hog banquet now, but in your own home."

"Ish zhat so? But I am Sheneral Bowsher just 'er shame?"

"Oh, yes. Go on and finish what you said to your troops at Syracuse."

"I never shaid nozzing to nobody at Syracuse. It was at Rochester. I shaid zhat we were called upon to die for our country. Don't dispute me, Mrs. Bowsher. You are awfully good woman and know a hull lot, but never, never dispute your husband. When he shays he died for his country at Newark, don't you shay it was Boston."

"Well, you died."

"Did I? Did I die, Mrs. Bowsher?" "You did."

"Poor Bowsher! Poor Sheneral Bowsher! Shay, zhat makes me feel bad. I wanted to live to make you happy, Mrs. Bowsher, but I went and died for my country. Don't blame me. I—I couldn't help it. Yesh, I went to 'er banquet, and more'n forty fellows shook hands viz me and called me Sheneral—Sheneral Bow—Bow—"

And then Mr. Bowser laid back in his chair and slept. Mrs. Bowser put a shawl over his lap, turned out the gas and went upstairs to bed. The cat came up from the kitchen and purred and purred, the crickets came out of their holes and sang and sang, the shadows flitted and flitted, and the ghosts of the dead night danced about the weary patriot, but he slept on and on and died for his country again and again.

NATIONAL CONTROL OF LIFE INSURANCE

James M. Beck's Reasons For Federal Supervision.

PEOPLE WILL DEMAND IT, HE SAYS

Ex-United States Deputy Attorney General Tella Agents at an Insurance Dinner in New York That Americans Are in a Frame of Mind Where They Will No Longer Recognize Territorial Lines—How the Change May Be Effected.

James M. Beck, ex-deputy attorney general of the United States, made a speech at the May dinner of the Life Underwriters' association of New York at the Hotel Astor the other night, in which he made a strong plea for supervision of the life insurance companies by the federal government instead of by the various state governments, as at present, and predicted that this would soon come to pass, says the New York Times.

"I believe the agitation of the last twelve months, in which the life insurance companies have been tested as though with fire," said Mr. Beck, "will tend to benefit the entire cause of life insurance in this country more greatly than anything that has yet occurred."

"In the first place, I believe it will turn the hearts and consciences of the heads of these great companies to the inside workings of their institutions. If it should be found that there is some cause for complaint these complaints must be met and the workings of these institutions be placed on a basis where all they do shall be done in the broad light of day."

"In the second place, I believe this agitation will further the cause of national supervision of life insurance companies. It is high time they were placed under the broadegis of federal protection instead of being left to the whimsical scrutiny of forty-five different insurance departments."

"I believe the events of the last twelve months have left the American people in a frame of mind where they will no longer recognize territorial lines, but will demand national control and national guarantee, which is only fitting in the case of institutions as broad in scope and as dignified in purpose as the life insurance companies."

"To achieve this we must first get congress to pass the necessary legislation. We must further convince the supreme court that its earlier definition of what rightly falls within the realm of interstate commerce has been too narrow in view of modern concentration of capital. No action is needed by court, congress or president to make life insurance companies national in their scope. Steam and electricity have already made them so."

"The great insurance concerns of the United States collect more money every year than the government collects in all its custom houses and disburse more money than the government does. In the treasuries of these institutions there is more money, or its equivalent, than the aggregate in circulation in the entire country."

"Congress and the supreme court have been lagging behind the economic events of recent years. 'Dooley' in his wisdom says that the supreme court follows the election returns. That, of course, is not true, but it is a fact that neither congress nor the supreme court, if this country is to continue as progressive as it has been in the past, can afford longer to be in the rear of the procession or legislate with regard to economic conditions which long ago have been outgrown. I believe that national supervision of life insurance is certain to come, though it may not be inaugurated for a decade yet."

"It must come if our insurance interests abroad and more still if our interests at home are to be protected. These great institutions cannot be economically administered if they are to be dependent upon the caprices of forty-five governments instead of one. It is a wonder that they have been able to survive at all with so many masters to put their hands into their coffers whenever they choose and help themselves to as much as caprice or greed may suggest."

Mr. Beck started out by saying that this had been the most unfortunate year in its immediate results that the life insurance interests in the United States had ever been called upon to pass through and that the effects of the recent agitation would be noticeable in life insurance returns for years to come.

J. H. Jeffries, an insurance man of Philadelphia, denounced the recent advocacy by an insurance paper of the state government stepping in and by eminent domain taking hold of one of the great insurance companies.

"It is not reasonable to believe," said he, "that the insurance companies would be more honestly or more economically managed in the hands of ignorant or dishonest politicians than they are today. Witness the recent case of Philadelphia, where the law-making power has turned to violation of the law, where public opinion is derided and the will of the people set at naught."

It is claimed by Admiral Enquist that the Japanese used submarine boats in the great naval battle, and this largely accounted for their great success. This may be the case, but as yet there is no adequate evidence of the fact. It seems more likely that the Japanese used torpedoes with great effect and that to this and their accurate gunnery their victory was due. Should it be established that submarine boats were employed effectively, naval warfare will be either revolutionized or else the nations will unite to prohibit their use in future wars. An attack by a submarine boat would possess such an insidious character as to shock the idea of fair play which most people possess. Yet it is true that all is said to be fair in war.

CAME BACK

As Mysteriously as He Had Disappeared Only to Kill Himself at Home.

Marion, O., June 6.—After having been searched for for several days by several hundred people at Norton and vicinity, James Bailey, who disappeared last Wednesday as though the earth had opened and swallowed him, returned yesterday.
He came back as mysteriously as he disappeared, and stepped unconcerned along with the relatives who had gathered at his home mourning his death, which had come to be conceded almost as a certainty. Bailey refused to give his relatives the least idea of where he had been since he left home.
Last night a telephone message from Norton stated that Bailey committed suicide about 6 o'clock by shooting himself, the ball passing entirely through his head.

Comprising Newark and Other Towns Is To Be Held in Zanesville, on June 29.

The annual convention of the Luther league of the Zanesville district, comprising Newark, Coshocton, Zanesville, Tuscarawas, Fultonham and Stovetown, will be held at St. John's English Lutheran church on South Sixth street, Zanesville, on Thursday, June 29.

This was decided upon at a meeting of the district officials held at the home of Miss Florence Sagie in Roseville.

Each of the leagues in the district is entitled to send 10 delegates and with these will come a number of visitors. It is expected that there will be over 100 strangers in Zanesville on that date.

Arrangements are being made for an excellent program. It is the intention to secure several out-of-town speakers for the meeting.

SALARIES OF NEWARK TEACHERS

Fixed By School Board at Monday Night's Meeting—Pedagogues Will Be Paid For Attending County Institute Which Meets In September—Miss Elizabeth Thomas Granted Year's Leave of Absence To Go To Europe.

The board of education met Monday night, with all members present. A great amount of work was accomplished.

Miss Elizabeth Thomas of the High School, upon application, was granted a leave of absence of one year. Miss Thomas expects to travel and study part of this time in Europe.

A vote of thanks was extended to Mr. Henry S. Fleck for the presentation of a valuable addition to the East Newark school building.

Principal E. P. Childs of the High School presented a list of thirty-five seniors, recommended for graduation, conditioned in some cases upon their passing the examinations Wednesday.

The trustee officer made his monthly report, which was received.

The matter referring to the construction of an area way to the basement of the new Woodside building, which was not provided for in the contract, was referred to the building committee with power to act.

A vote of thanks was extended to the pupils of Professor W. E. Painter's manual training class in the East Newark schools for a nicely constructed pen rack, ink stand, and candle stick, made by the members of the class. Mr. Painter deserves much credit for furnishing the manual training machinery and appliances at his own expense, and he has succeeded in arousing considerable interest in that work, having from forty to fifty pupils in his class.

All of the present corps of teachers were re-elected upon the recommendation of Superintendent Simkins, and also Edna Swanson and Josephine Sawyer, the last two being subject to assignments as soon as vacancies occur.

The committee on teachers and salaries recommends for adoption the following recommendations, to-wit:

DASHED OVER AN EMBANKMENT

FOUR OCCUPANTS OF AUTO HURT
VERY SERIOUSLY AT COSHOCTON.

Machine Caught Fire and Two of Four Men May Die—Running at High Speed.

Coshocton, O., June 6.—With their machine speeding along at the rate of 40 miles an hour, four Millersburg automobilists were dashed over a 20-foot embankment near here last night by the front axle of their machine breaking. All are seriously injured, two perhaps fatally. The automobile, which was a 24-horsepower machine, is a complete wreck.

The owner, John P. Thomas, was at the motor, and in the seat with him was David Wolgamot. Both were terribly hurt. Thomas' legs were broken. Wolgamot sustained two broken ribs and internal injuries. In the rear seat were Charles Lohouse and John D. Deetz. Each had an arm broken. The machine turned completely over and landed on top of Thomas, who was frightfully cut and bruised. All were brought to this city.

The party was touring and arrived here from Millersburg yesterday afternoon. They started out at 5 o'clock for Mt. Vernon.

The machine took fire while Thomas was pinned under the wreckage, and he would have burned to death had it not been for Lohouse.

Notice of Registration.
There will be registration in the city of Newark on Thursday, June 8, 1905, at the usual hours in all the voting precincts, to register all persons not registered and issue certificates of removal, relative to the Democratic primary election to be held Saturday, June 10, 1905.

WE LENGTHEN LIFE AND CURE DISEASE By Supplying Nature Power

For ages men have tried to cure disease and failed. Instead of helping Nature, they have helped disease and death with alcohol and medical poisons. The only way to cure disease is to supply Nature with the power to drive every microbe, every disease germ, out of the system. We call it because it is the very essence of life. It feeds, strengthens, and makes the body new all over. To prevent disease or regain health, Nature must perform four things perfectly. Digest, Assimilate, Eliminate, and Construct. Only Perfectly digested and assimilated food supplies life. NUTRIOLA digests food naturally and perfectly. Perfect assimilation follows perfect digestion. NUTRIOLA makes Red Corpuscles—rich in building material.

NUTRIOLA makes Leucocytes—White Corpuscles—strong and vigorous and they quickly destroy every germ and microbe. They are the only germ destroyers. Nature uses the lungs, kidneys, and bowels to eliminate the dead and diseased cells and tissues and Nature builds new cells in their place. NUTRIOLA makes new blood and from the blood Nature makes new brain, nerve, lung, liver, heart, kidney, bone and muscle cells. It's the same natural law that makes plants grow when supplied with chemical nutrition. Apply the vigor of youth, the power of maturity, the strength of perfect life, courses through your system and you know that NUTRIOLA and Nature has made you "new all over".

Whatever your disease may be, we will guarantee to cure you and we will care you, or it won't cost you a cent. NUTRIOLA costs you 8 cents a day. Our Staff of Skilled Physicians can make a correct diagnosis of your case, or however you may prefer to try it. They have a method and means of doing this that never fail. They tell you just what to do to get well in every case. Their services are FREE.

$500,000.00 Capital Stock and 4,000 responsible stockholders guarantee. Ask our bankers if we are reliable. Get NUTRIOLA from your druggist or send directly to us. 25 days treatment $2.

Money Back in 25 Days If You Want It. YOU DECIDE.

If you would live long and enjoy health write us to-day. The Nutriola Co., 142-148 W. Madison St., Chicago.

ENGINEER PACKARD BREAKS RECORD

FOR FAST RUNNING ON THE PANHANDLE ROAD OUT OF NEWARK.

Auditor Pitzer Goes to Columbus to Help Appraise Buckeye Lake Line—Local Railway Notes.

All previous records for fast running on the joint piece of track between Columbus and Newark, which is used by the Pennsylvania and Baltimore and Ohio, were broken Saturday afternoon by Al Packard at the throttle of the big Atlantic type passenger locomotive pulling Panhandle No. 16, the New York special. No. 16, which was in charge of Conductor Templeton, left Columbus at 4:19 p. m., nine minutes late and arrived at Newark at 4:53, on time, having covered the 33 miles in 31 minutes and having made two slow-downs. The best previous record was held by Frank Powell, who runs opposite Packard on No. 16. He made the run in 36 minutes. During the run Saturday afternoon a speed of nearly 100 miles an hour was reached. The run between Columbus and Denison on No. 16 is not considered a desirable one, as it is just as dangerous as it is fast. Some of the older men have refused to take it and have laid off waiting for an opening on some of the slower runs.

Buckeye Lake Appraisement.

Auditor A. R. Pitzer was in Columbus Tuesday assisting in the appraisement of the Columbus, Buckeye Lake and Newark traction railway.

To Be Purchased by Wabash.

Pittsburg, June 6.—Joseph Ramsey, Jr., president of the Wabash Railroad company, announced in this city that negotiations were at present pending for the sale of the Little Kanawha syndicate holdings to the Wabash Railroad company. Mr. Ramsey is manager and a heavy stockholder of the syndicate. Mr. Ramsey emphatically denied that there was any friction between himself and Mr. Gould, and said their relations were entirely amicable.

New York to Chicago in 17 Hours.

Chicago, June 6.—The Pennsylvania railroad broke all records for fast traveling between New York and Chicago by making the run of 897 miles in 17 hours flat. The feat was accomplished by two special trains, one running from New York to Pittsburgh in 8 hours 50 minutes and the other making the run from Pittsburgh to Chicago in 8 hours and 10 minutes. The runs were trials of speed to demonstrate the ability of the road to put into service an 18-hour service and maintain the schedule under ordinary circumstances.

Want Pension Earlier.

Data is being collected by the pension department of the Pennsylvania to determine how much of a sentiment there is in favor of the plan to lower the pensionable age from 65 years to 60 years. As it is, employees are pensioned at 70 whether they desire it or not, but when reaching 65 years they may be placed on the pension list if they so desire. Those favoring the reduction plan propose that each employee give one day's wages a year to supply the additional funds necessary under the modification. It is proposed to soon put the question to a vote and those favoring it are convinced that it will receive a unanimous vote. If the change goes through it will eventually be extended to the Pennsylvania lines.

WILD RUMORS

In Wall Street This Morning of Some Sensational Foreign Event—Not Confirmed.

New York, June 6.—There were rumors in Wall street this morning that a sensational foreign event had occurred, but the gossips could not say definitely what it was. Some had it that the czar was assassinated and others that it was Kaiser Wilhelm that was killed.

Broker wires spread the news to other cities and many messages of inquiry were sent here.

It develops that the rumor that the czar had been assassinated was current on the Bourse in Berlin this morning and was cable to this country. The Berlin Bourse rumor had it that the Mendelssohns, bankers of the Russian government, had received a private telegram to that effect. At the offices of the foreign consul here it was stated that there was no intelligence of such a tragedy.

A farmer of Aiden, Okla., 40 miles from Snyder, found a number of photographs in a good state of preservation that had been carried to his farm by the recent tornado at Snyder.

YOUNGSTOWN DEFEATED BY NEWARK

Her Twirler is Pounded for Twelve Safe Hits

CY VOORHEES WAS A BIG PROBLEM

Game Went Well For Visitors Until Their Undoing Came In the Eighth Inning—8 to 3.

The crack Youngstown aggregation, noted for the high salaried players who are carried by the steel and iron magnates of that city, were badly defeated at Idlewild park Monday afternoon when Newark mercifully punished their pitcher, Thomas, and practically sent him to the tall sage grass to recover his surprise.

It was no accident. It was merely a case of hard hitting coupled with sensible base running in one part of the innings and good pitching by Cy Voorhees and good fielding in the other half. 'Tis true that Newark had some costly errors but there were good plays enough to discount these.

The visitors were cleanly defeated and though they played good ball, it was impossible for them to bunt their hits after the second inning. Big Cy was too much of a problem and his speed was so great that they could not keep track of the ball after it left his hand bound for the home plate.

The hearts in the breasts of the local fans sank when Voorhees hit Blount, the first Youngstown batter, with a swiftly pitched ball. He went limping to first and his feelings were so hurt by Cy's unkindness that he asked for a runner.

Maloney sacrificed him to second. Phyle and McClusky each flew out to Linderbeck and Snyder.

Newark's half of the same inning started out the same. Snodgrass got hit and O'Brien attempted to sacrifice but went to first on a fielder's choice. Snow went to third on Thomas' wild throw to second. He scored on Linderbeck's clean single over second base. Linderbeck stole second and went to third when Starr handled Wratten's liner to short, and tried to catch Blitt at home plate. This was successful but "Peaches" O'Neil tried to catch Linderbeck at third and threw wild, allowing the middle fielder to score. Doyle and MacKown each went out at first on infield grounders and the side was retired with two scores chalked up.

Cy Voorhees got his bumps in the second when Whitney, first up, hit safely. Starr went out at first with an assist from Snow, sending Whitney to second. Thomas hit one over the fence for two bases, scoring Whitney. Peaches O'Neil hit a grounder to the pitcher and went out at first, sending his left fielder to third. Pitcher Thomas scored Fielder Thomas on a clean hit and Phyle flew out to Baxton after Blount and Maloney had each got on bases by a pass and an error.

Things then proceeded smoothly and in the fifth, Newark scored one on two outs, a sacrifice and a stolen base. Youngstown followed with a hit after two outs in the sixth, when an error or two allowed them to again tie the score.

The terrible slaughter followed in the eighth inning when O'Brien led off with a clean single. Several singles and a double by MacKown followed and Maloney threw wild from the out garden when he handled Doyle's hit and everybody circled the bases. The hits followed in rapid succession until Whitney and McClusky by a neat double play ended the agony. Five runs were scored on five singles, a double, a sacrifice and a stolen base, coupled with Maloney's error. It was too late to attempt a rally in the defeated ranks, inasmuch as Voorhees was smiling broader than ever and his speed and curves were greater than before, so the defeated Youngstown warriors took their medicine and but three men came to bat in the last inning.

DENISON WINS

Track Meet at Westerville With Otterbein—Records Lower Than Those Made by High Schools at Idlewild Saturday.

The Denison track team journeyed to Westerville Monday, where they met the Otterbein track men in a field meet. Denison track men were victors in the contest, scoring 52 points, while their opponents were collecting 49. Otterbein was unable to break even with the Baptists on the 220-yard dash and the pole vault. Otherwise the contest was equal.

Otterbein claims that Funk was unfairly called back in the 220-yard hurdle and so lost first place in the event. The summary follows:

100 yard dash—Dittmer, Ot., first; Binkley, Den., second. Time—0 15. Mile run—Ayer, Ot., first; Luse, Den., second. Time—4 50 25. Shot put—Bennett, Ot., first; Pamment, Den., second. Distance—34 ft. 5 in. 440 yard dash—Ayer, Ot., first; Binkley, Den., second. Time—55. High jump—Funk, Ot., first; Coe, Den., second. Height—5 feet.

120 yard hurdles—Funk, Ot., first; Rodgers, Den., second. Time—17 35. Broad jump—Coe, Den., first; Porter, Ot., second. Distance—19 feet 9 in.

220 yard hurdles—Campbell, Den., first; Funk, Ot., second. Times—20. Half mile run—Ayer, Ot., first; Shoup, Den., second. Time 2:13 25.

Hammer throw—Flick, Ot., first; Bailey, Ot., second. Distance—100 ft. 11 in.

220 yard dash—Roudebush, Den., first; Coe, Den., second. Time—24 15. Pole vault—Pamment, Den., first; Ashmire, Den., second. Height—8 ft. 9 in.

The relay race was won by Denison. Compared with the records made at Idlewild park Saturday by the high school athletes, the above showing was poor. Everything is equal except the shot put and the hammer throw. In Saturday's high school event a 12-pound shot and hammer were used, while the college men used a 16-pound weight.

LANCASTER, 8; LIMA, 1.
Lancaster, O., June 6.—Lancaster defeated Lima yesterday 8 to 1. Perdue, who started in to pitch for the visitors, was wild, as he is nursing a broken finger, and retired after the second inning.

JERSEY'S GREAT TEAM.
Jersey, June 6.—Johnstown and Pataskala played baseball here Saturday with a score of 11 to 12 in favor of Pataskala. The Jersey boys were to play afterwards with the winning team, but at the end of the third inning, with a score of 14 to 0 in favor of our home team, the Pataskala boys were willing to quit.

NOTES.

It begins to look as though all the good teams were not located in the northern end of the circuit this year. Zanesville is well able to hold her own with any of them, Lancaster will make them all play ball, and Newark and Mt. Vernon aren't going to take a back seat, either.

The above from the Zanesville Times Recorder looks bad alongside the following, which appeared in its issue of May 17: "If that Newark team doesn't hurry up and win some games she will have to break into the Southeastern Ohio league, the Epworth league, or some other old league." However, we are glad to know that the T. R. realizes that Newark is playing ball. Yesterday's game with Youngstown is more evidence that Newark is "a-goin' some."

AL ACKERMAN

Cracks Rib for Max Lutberg at Columbus and Wins Bout—Claims No Credit for the Feat.

Columbus, O., June 6.—Al Ackerman, Ohio's wrestling wonder, last night blossomed out in the role of a rib breaker and had it comparatively easy in beating Lutberg at the Southern A. C. gym.

For the first 37 minutes of the initial bout Lutberg was the aggressor and failed to make any headway against his slippery opponent.

Ackerman suddenly came on top and secured his favorite hold, a bar Nelson. Lutberg went turning over and was down on his back in 38.48.

As he went down, Lutberg groaned and clutched at his side. For a full minute he lay on the mat and then went to his dressing room. The second bout was the final one. With a body hold, if it can be classed at all, Ackerman put Lutberg down in a trifle over 5 minutes.

Then the Fosteria man made this speech. "Although I have won this match, I don't want any credit for it. I broke a Lutberg rib when I gained the first fall."

TO THE PUBLIC

As there are a great many rumors afloat with regard to the trouble at the Wehrle stove works, Local 166 of the Metal Polishers, Buffers, Platers and Brass Molders International Union of North America, wish to state for the benefit of the general public the cause of their being locked out.

Some three weeks ago the executive board of the above named union and an international officer called at the office of the company for a conference with the manager, who refused to grant them five minutes of his precious time but referred them to the foreman, one James Gray. They had a lengthy conference with Mr. Gray and he made the following verbal agreement with them:

First—That he would pick the iron.

Second—That he would hire none but union men.

Third—That he would furnish a place for the men to hang their clothes, also conveniences for the men to wash up.

Mr. Gray did not live up to any of the agreements entered into, and on last Thursday night put a non-union buffer on in preference to a union man. And when the executive board went to him and asked him to live up to his agreement, he refused and said to the union men to get out, that he did not want them, and that he would keep the non-union man.

There are about 120 union polishers and buffers locked out and they will stay out to a man until the firm signs the agreement which was presented to them by the above organization. POLISHERS AND BUFFERS LOCAL, No. 166. H. E. Carr, A. Walsh, A. Harter, J. Mayers, George Raab, committee.

MR. GALLANT RESIGNS

As City Editor of American Tribune and Will Go To New Castle, With Mr. Dickinson.

Fred W. Gallant, who for more than a year has been connected with the news department of the American Tribune has resigned his position to take effect Saturday night. Mr. Gallant for several months has been the city editor of the paper and until that time held a responsible position as reporter.

He will leave Sunday for New Castle, Pa., where he will take up his new duties in an editorial position with the Herald, the paper recently purchased there by Mr. Dickinson.

In leaving Newark Mr. Gallant takes with him the best wishes of a host of friends, not only in the newspaper circles but from those who have been fortunate enough to have been associated with him. His friends here regret exceedingly his loss of his departure but find consolation in the fact that he will better himself in many ways. His new position is not only in the form of a promotion but it is more lucrative as well.

EUGENE V. DEBS AT AUDITORIUM

LABOR LEADER ADDRESSES BIG AUDIENCE ON SUBJECT OF SOCIALISM.

At Conclusion of His Speech Mr. Debs Was Given Impromptu Reception on the Stage.

Eugene V. Debs, perhaps the most popular man among the laboring element of this country today, addressed a good sized audience at the Auditorium Monday night on the subject dear to his heart, Socialism.

Mr. Debs has a strong personality and his demeanor on the stage is such that he wins at once the hearts and undivided attention of all who are within hearing distance of his voice.

He handled the problems of labor and capital with the ease of one who has made them a careful study. He deals with them from the popular side and spares neither the feelings of his audience nor the feelings of those with whom he does not agree. His sarcasm is keen and when his audience is not listening with rapt attention, the auditors are roaring with laughter.

He dwelt Monday night for a few moments on the question of the Russo-Japanese war. In leading up to the question he said that this life was given over to the struggle for supremacy. He said that the father educated his children that they might be better prepared to fight the battle of life than the neighbor's child and that the lad was instructed that there was always room at the top. He cited the struggle of the nations for commercial supremacy of the world and stated that that was the primary cause of the present war in the far East.

He predicted that the United States would be drawn into the difficulty before peace finally dawned.

Mr. Debs was not always given to sarcasm nor wit. Frequently he lapsed into the pathos of his subject and his recital of the conditions existing during the period of "hard times" was extremely pathetic.

At the conclusion of the address, Mr. Debs was greeted with an impromptu reception on the stage at the Auditorium and he shook hands with many of those who heard his address.

Hillsboro Tragedy.

Hillsboro, O., June 6.—There are no new developments in the murder and suicide case here. Relatives had not claimed the body of young Baldwin, who killed two girls and committed suicide, and he will probably be interred in potter's held here.

Seniors Decline to Speak.

Zanesville, O., June 6.—The four young men who were chosen speakers for the commencement of the High school Thursday evening have handed a written declination to speak to Superintendent Lash. If the chorus boys, members of the junior class, were permitted to wear white duck trousers. The senior boys maintain that the action of the junior boys was purely one of class rivalry. The junior boys say they did it merely that distinction might be more easily made between the two classes.

The Hillsboro Tragedy.

Hillsboro, O., June 6.—It is believed that Madge Dines and Nettie Hart were killed by George Baldwin, whose body was found near those of the young girls at the Dines farmhouse, and that he then committed suicide. The supposition is that he attempted an assault on the first girl, and that Miss Dines tried to defend her, as there were evidences of a desperate struggle. Mrs. Dines, the mother of Madge, is in a critical condition from the shock of the terrible scene that confronted her on her return home, and may not recover.

Revenue Collector Resigns.

Cincinnati, O., June 6.—Bernhard Bettman, who has been United States internal revenue collector in Cincinnati district since his appointment by President McKinley in 1897, sent his resignation to President Roosevelt. Mr. Bettman is one of the best known Hebrews in the country, having been president of the famous Hebrew Union college, a director in banks and a prominent Mason. His successor will be named in a few days.

Held on Lunacy Warrant.

Marion, O., June 6.—Thomas Darrah, 45, was arrested on a lunacy warrant, the charge having been preferred by Postmaster M. B. Dickerson. Darrah, it is charged, wrote letters to President Roosevelt, Governor Herrick and many other notables, calling them vile names. Furthermore, it is charged he also sent obscene letters to prominent Marion residents, including the postmaster.

Grand Army Encampment.

Washington, C. H. O., June 6.—The thirty-ninth annual encampment of the Department of Ohio, Grand Army, began in this city and will continue until Friday. Already the old veterans who are delegates to the encampment from all parts of Ohio and the delegates to the various conventions of the auxiliary organizations are arriving thick and fast.

McCartney Indicted.

London, O., June 6.—The special grand jury impaneled to investigate the case of the state of Ohio against Jacob McCartney, charged with the murder of Earl Richmond April 7, reported an indictment for murder in the second degree. This is the third jury that has had the case.

Memorial For Mayor Jones.

Toledo, O., June 6.—The city will close all offices and hold memorial services on the anniversary of the death of the late Samuel M. Jones, the "golden rule" mayor, whose ideas and whose remarkable personal victories in local politics attracted so much attention a few years ago.

Back Broken.

Piqua, O., June 6.—Patrick F. Parks, an itinerant umbrella mender, fell from a bridge spanning Miami river while endeavoring to escape an approaching freight train. He fell 50 feet into shallow water, where he lay all night before his cries were heard. His back was broken.

Jap Jailed.

Toledo, O., June 6.—N. Kono, who claims to be an agent of the Japanese government and a graduate of the college of Tokyo, was arrested by the local police on the charge of petit larceny. He had a claim against a clerk and attempted to collect it by taking her watch.

Delaware's Hospital.

Delaware, O., June 6.—The trustees of the James M. Case hospital broke ground Monday for remodeling and building an annex to the Lybair mansion, which was given by the late Mr. Case of Cleveland for a hospital.

Delaware Man's Suicide.

Delaware, O., June 6.—James Bailey, 30, suicided at Norton's, six miles north of here Monday night, shooting himself through the left temple. Mr. Bailey had been an inmate of the State Asylum and was returned last April.

Furious Fighting.

"For seven years," writes Gen. W. Hoffman, of Harper, Wash., "I had a bitter battle, with chronic stomach and liver trouble, but at last I won, and cured my diseases, by the use of Electric Bitters. I unhesitatingly recommend them to all, and don't intend in the future to be without them in my house. They are certainly a wonderful medicine, to have cured such a bad case as mine." Promising Young Players

Phil Lewis, Star College Shortstop, on Ed Hanlon's Team—Takes Keeler's Place in Hearts of Fans—Daniel Hoffmann, Mack's Clever Outfielder.

No young ball player ever made a better start in the National league than Phil Lewis, who is playing shortstop for the Brooklyn club.

The young collegian's work, particularly in the field, has been brilliant, and he is easily the most popular player.

PHIL LEWIS, BROOKLYN'S SHORTSTOP.

Known with the Brooklyn fans the club has been since the days of Willie Keeler. Lewis is a protégé of Hughey Jennings, one of the greatest shortstops the game has ever known, and he plays the position like Jennings used to play it. He has a good arm and plays a very deep field, deeper, Manager Ned Hauley says, than any shortstop he has ever seen.

He goes at the ball like Jennings. He has the Orioles' manager's trick of taking the ball on the run when he is covering second and touching the runner; also, like Jennings, he is a great handler of thrown balls.

Lewis played on the Cornell university nine, which Jennings coached, for several years. Major league clubs tried to sign him, but he refused to do any business except through Jennings. Last season he played with the Baltimore club of the Eastern league and made a fine record. Last fall he was drafted by Manager Clark Griffith of the New York Highlanders.

It was discovered later that the entire Baltimore team had been "covered up" by the Brooklyn club. The national commission decided that Lewis belonged to Brooklyn. After this decision the entire outfit was returned to Baltimore with the exception of Lewis and Pitcher Eason.

Daniel J. Hoffmann, the crack outfielder of Connie Mack's Boston Athletics, is another youngster who has "made good." As will be seen by the following narrative of his career, Hoffmann is comparatively "new" to major league ball.

This rising young player was born in Canton, Conn., in 1889 and learned to play ball in Torrington, Conn., with whose independent team he made more than a local reputation. In 1901 he was given a trial by Manager Roger Connor of the Waterbury club and "made good."

In 1902 Hoffmann went with Connor to Springfield and that season led the Connecticut league batsmen. In 1903 he was signed by the Athletics club, of the American league, and used as utility outfielder.

In 1904 Hoffmann was made the regular center fielder of the Athletics and led the team in batting until July, when he was hit in the eye by a pitched ball from Tammelli in Boston and laid up for the balance of the season. Later he recovered the use of his eye and played in a few games in the last week of the season, demonstrating that it would be in shape to play again in 1905.

MR. VEACH'S REPLY TO CITY'S PROPOSITION ON WATER WORKS

Representatives of Water Company Holds That Only Way Is To Appraise Property—Company Is Bound But City Is Not By Appraisal—Full Text of Mr. Veach's Communication To Newark City Officials.

Mr. William Allen Veach, manager of the Newark Water Company, has just prepared his reply to the city's proposition to pay $100,000 for the old waterworks. Mr. Veach holds that the only way the water company can dispose of its property is by appraisal and he states that while the company is bound to accept the figures agreed upon by the appraisers the city is not bound to take the plant at that or any other price. Mr. Veach's complete statement follows:

To the Mayor, Members of the Board of Public Service and Council of the City of Newark, Ohio:—

Gentlemen:—Your proposition of May 15th, 1905, offering to purchase the Newark, Ohio, Water Company's plant at a consideration of $90,000.00 to the bondholders and $10,000.00 to the water company was duly received.

In reply to said proposition we have to say that even should the price named be considered adequate, there are many serious obstacles to a sale of the property in the manner proposed by the city.

First: The stockholders can, in only one way, sell the plant without the consent of all of the bondholders. This method is provided for in the contract between the water company and the city, to-wit: "The city of Newark shall have the right at any time after the expiration of ten years to purchase the said waterworks at an appraised valuation, which shall be ascertained by the estimate of three engineers, one to be selected by the City Council, one by the Water Works Company, and these two to select the third; provided, that nothing shall be paid for the unexpired franchise of said Company;" the bonds and mortgage of the water company being subject to this contract, and the original ordinance of said city, they would therefore have to be bound by any action legally taken under its provisions.

The water company has already made a proposition to the city to proceed with an appraisal in accordance with said contract, with the express agreement that the water company will be bound to sell at the appraised value, but the city will not be bound to purchase at all. In other words, whatever the appraisal is, if it is as low as $50,000.00, the water company will be bound to sell, but the city will not be bound to buy. This is the only method in which the sale of the plant can be legally effected without the consent of all of the bondholders.

It may be asked: "Why can not the water company get the consent of the bondholders?" So far as the water company has been able to learn, the $225,000.00 of bonds which constitute the first and only lien upon the plant, are scattered all over the New England and Central Atlantic Coast states, in the hands of estates, widows, business men and other persons seeking what is considered a safe conservative investment for money. It would be a practically impossible task to obtain the consent of hundreds of people to a sale at less than forty cents on the dollar, where the majority of those people have no knowledge of the local condition at Newark. These people have paid one hundred cents on the dollar for their bonds, they have been receiving their interest money regularly and in some instances known to the writer, they are dependent upon the little income from their few bonds for their daily living. Such people as these will not consent to a sale of their bonds for less than they paid for them in honest money and in good faith.

However, this is a matter that the bondholders will have to answer. If they are willing to take the price offered by the city, the water company is probably in no position to make objection.

Second: To our mind another important reason for an appraisal is that without an examination and appraisal of the plant by competent engineers, the citizens practically have no means of knowing either the extent, capacity, condition or value of the property offered for sale by the water company. Municipal ownership of public utilities is certainly a matter of sufficient magnitude and importance to the citizens and taxpayers of the city, in fixing the valuation and the price to be paid for the property, that it be done by engineers familiar with this kind of work, and in no sense based upon guess work merely.

We believe this plant has a certain value. We think we know more about it than the average citizen. The city thinks it has a different certain value. We are willing to let any fair-minded, competent board of appraisers decide between us, we to be bound by the finding, but the city not to be bound.

We don't want to sell this plant for more or less than it is worth to the city. We believe the citizens deserve to learn something about the property from a source which is both competent and unbiased. We believe that the city council and city administration should know what they are buying, no matter what they are paying for it.

It has been said that it would be expensive to have an appraisal. When the cost of essential knowledge regarding an investment is less than 1-500 of its proposed cost, does not good plain business sense tell us that such knowledge is cheap at the price?

We see no necessity to comment on the price offered. We have tried to make it clear that a sale under such circumstances is practically impossible for the water company. In suggesting the means of arriving at a sale of the plant we have not referred to the fact that this method was the one expressly agreed upon by the city at the time when the plant was first built; at the time when the establishment of such an institution in Newark as a water plant was a doubtful financial venture; when the people needed the water for private consumption and fire protection, and when the city had no power to build its own plant; at that time the water company was regarded as a beneficial institution; and so it continued through the years until the tide turned and it began to make at least running expenses and the interest on the money invested. In those days this agreement of sale was considered fair and just by both parties.

Now if the city desires municipal ownership of the water service, we prefer to sell our plant to the city, whatever that price may be, rather than to enter into competition with or embarrass the city in carrying out successfully its scheme of municipal ownership. But the only practical method of making such sale is by an appraisal. Very respectfully submitted, NEWARK OHIO WATER COMPANY, By Wm. Allen Veach, Manager.

AT BUCKEYE LAKE MR. DAY HAD $20

When Dead Body Was Found By Track Only Few Pennies Were In His Pockets.

Considerable talk has been indulged in during the past day or two concerning the death of Archie Day of the Brillhart & Ellis grocery, Union block, whose dead body was found lying alongside the track of the C. B. L. & N. Traction line, a short distance west of Hebron on Wednesday morning following Decoration day.

Coroner Legge has thoroughly investigated the matter and will return his verdict within a day or two. Mr. Day was at Buckeye Lake Park on Decoration day, and it is positively known that he had between fifteen and twenty dollars at that time. He was last seen at the park about 7 p. m. It is supposed that he had started to go to the home of his parents, who reside in Kirkersville and that he was thrown from the car by a pickpocket, whom Mr. Day had detected in the act of robbing him. When his body was found at midnight his money was missing, only two five cent pieces being found on his person. There were quite a number of crafters and pickpockets in the big crowd at Buckeye Lake Park on Decoration day, and numerous reports of lost pocketbooks were made to the police. Among those from this city who were touched were Oscar Darnell, who lost $52 and Russell Legge, who was touched for $5.

SHORT SESSION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

WATER WORKS PROPOSITION NOT UP FOR CONSIDERATION BY THE BODY.

Estimated Cost of Paving South Third Street—Hospital Ordinance Put on Its Second Reading.

The warm weather of Monday night caused the city council to finish in a big hurry. The water works proposition did not come up in the council meeting and there was little business of importance considered. All members were present when the roll was called and President Rosell presided.

Probably the most important business was the report of the Public Service board on the estimated cost of the paving of South Third street from the railroad to Pataskala street. In this report it was estimated that the paving would cost $3.45 per front foot. The report was received and filed.

A report from the tax commission was received which approved the tax levy ordinance which was passed at the last meeting of the council. The finance committee reported the sale of the street improvement bonds to W. J. Hayes and Son of Cleveland for $7,300. A report was received from the public service committee recommending the passage of the ordinance which provides for the improvement of Locust street from Fifth to Twelfth streets by paving.

In a report from the Public Service board it was recommended that Dr. Stedem and Fred C. Evans be granted permission to tap the "Third" street sewer, as their houses on Elmwood avenue were too low to tap into the sewer on that street.

Mayor Crilly reported the collection of money for fines and licenses amounting to $307 for the month.

A petition was presented to the council by Mr. Jones for permission to build a sewer in the alley between Main and Church streets running from First to Front street. The matter was referred to the public service committee.

The Locust street paving ordinance which has hung fire in the council for several months, was at last passed, all voting for the measure. The $30,000 hospital bond issue ordinance was placed upon its second reading.

A petition presented by Carlisle for the paving of High street was read and ordered referred to the committee on public service.

The Kibler Place addition which is a new addition platted out by Chilcote and Jones will be accepted by the city after the passage of an ordinance introduced by Mr. Beadle.

A resolution was introduced to instruct the city solicitor to withdraw the suit against George W. Penney, which is now pending in Common Pleas court. The resolution was adopted.

I want manager for branch office in each county, $550. and bond required; state experience and reference. M. W. Pither, 221 Illinois street, Chicago, Ill.
